

HAMILTON APPENDIX

This appendix of events and sources for the Hamilton family of Rawdon is in addition to the story of the Hamiltons as found in Up To Rawdon, Part One, in the chapter Mason, Sadler, Hamilton, Powell, Bridges and Armstrong: Associated Families at Rawdon. Most of the material is from the register of Christ Church of England and Ireland at Rawdon, Quebec, those marked with an asterisk * are from an index to the church copy of the register or may be from the Church copy of the register and may not be in the civil copy (Drouin Index found at ancestry.com). Editorial explanatory notes are in blue italics. Entries from other church registers are noted as such.

<sup>6</sup> Thomas may have moved to property owned by, or near to, his in-laws, the Melrose family.

<sup>7</sup> Thomas Hamilton, farmer of Ste-Julienne, died May 25, 1909, aged 78 and was buried on May 27. His tombstone, with Annie, is in the Rawdon Methodist Cemetery.

<sup>8</sup> Annie died October 13, 1893, 70 years. See: Melrose: from Scotland to Rawdon for her background and detailed information about their children

<sup>9</sup> She married John McCurdy on October 18, 1881 at Rawdon. They are buried at Christ Church, Rawdon. In 1861, she was not at home in Ste-Julienne but appeared to have been teaching school at Rawdon and living near the Samuel Hamilton family. With her is another younger Hamilton female whose name and age is unclear but possibly it was Ellen who is also on the Ste-Julienne census.

John Hamilton and Margaret Kirkland, of Montreal, a Rawdon native, married on March 1, 1876 at St. George's Anglican Church, Montreal. John farmed at Ste-Julienne on one of the original Hamilton farms and retired to Rawdon, in the 1890s. They had no children and adopted a Scottish home child, Mary Cousland Kinsey in June 1890. Read the chapter: The Kinsey Children. John Hamilton 1829 – 1909, Margaret Kirkland 1842-1916 and Mary Kinsey 1890-1958 stand on the steps of John's newly built retirement house, Metcalfe Street. Daisy Hamilton	April 10 1878	Listed as daughter of Thomas and Catherine in 1891; date is from 1901 Census. <sup>13</sup>

<sup>10</sup> He is Thomas P. Hamilton only on the 1881 census. A hint, perhaps, that his mother was named Sarah Purdue, research of Douglas Moon op .cit.

Thomas Hamilton died on November 13, 1894 at Fitch Bay, Stanstead County, Quebec and was buried in the Anglican Cemetery the following day. Witnessed by P.E. and S.M. Sheldon who are probably children of his daughter Susan, Mrs. Uriah Sheldon

<sup>11</sup> On 1881 Census, the three younger sons of Thomas and Catherine were incorrectly reported as Irish born. The elder married sons were correctly reported as Quebec born.

<sup>13</sup> Daisy and older sister, Ellen, are not on 1881 census; Daisy may be a daughter of Ellen.

<sup>14</sup> Named Louisa, 11 years on 1852 Rawdon Census (C1124). Samuel and Ann are on page 91 and the children are on page 73. The pages are not in correct order; the enumerator has shuffled them. Sarah / Louisa was not on the 1861 census; I have not found record of death.

<sup>15</sup> He died January 12, 1947 and is buried with his wife was Frances McGarrity (footnote 18) in Kincardine Cemetery.

Children: Walter Robert Hamilton born August 9, 1872 and Anna Frances Hamilton born February 22, 1874 were at Christ Church. An unnamed infant son was born and died at Rawdon March 10, 1880.

Johnston Hamilton and Elizabeth Mason family

Johnston was, I believe, a son of Robert Hamilton and Jane Bridges.<sup>19</sup> Johnston, in 1852, was 17 and lived with his uncle, Thomas Bridges and his widowed mother, Jane Hamilton, 48. He was born in Canada, as he was for 1861 and 1881 censuses. The Irish birth claimed in 1871 must be incorrect. His birth date, from census reports, varies from 1826 to 1836 but his Methodist Cemetery tombstone dates his birth c. 1832 and in 1901 he gave his birth date as March 27, 1833.

Jane Bridges Hamilton still lived with Johnston in 1861 and 1871. His marriage to Eliza / Elizabeth Mason (daughter<sup>20</sup> of Thomas Mason and Elizabeth Bridges) has not been found but it must have been 1860-61. Johnston and his wife, I believe, were first cousins.

Johnston died at 77 on December 8, 1909 and buried on December 10 at Rawdon and Eliza at 83 on May 3, 1920 (tombstone in Christ Church Cemetery).

<sup>18</sup> Fanny McGarrity was born at Rawdon on June 1, 1846 and baptized at Christ Church on June 1, 1846. Her father John McGarrity was, I believe, a brother William McGarrity, second husband of Margaret McBride Hamilton. Her mother Bridget Rivington was a Roman Catholic but all the children were baptized at Christ Church; some of her sisters married Catholics.

<sup>20</sup> Eliza Mason was born c. 1837 according to her Methodist Cemetery tombstone and most census reports. In 1901, she dated her birth as September 4, 1836 and in 1911 as September 1835.

Children of Johnston Hamilton and Elizabeth Mason:
