Some excerpts from references for Mr. Bourne

To whom it may concern

This is to certify that Rowland H. Bourne has for the last two years acted as Apothecary to the Eastern Dispensary of the City of New York during which time he has given satisfaction to the Trustees by his diligence & attention to the duties of his office also by the kindness & feeling for patients applying for relief at the Institution.

New York 10th October 1836 Wm. Tillott one of the Trustees

..... has exhibited a uniformly consistent, and exemplary character, I can cheerfully, and freely say that he has been faithful in the discharge of his duties as Apothecary ... and further that while dispensing medicines to the applicants he has zealously labored for their eternal good by religious counsel, and in the reading , and distribution of tracts, and in other way manifested a sincere Christian spirit, and a strong interest in the well-being , and everlasting salvation of his fellow creatures.

Stephen Wood, M.D.

James W. Dominick "cheerfully" concurred to the above.
