Protestant on this census usually means Church of England.

Most women were enumerated by their maiden names.

French spelling was used, Marguerite for Margaret and Suzanne for Susan

(?) = not sure, hard to read; dates in blue italics are from the Christ Church register.

<sup>1</sup> There are two Irish Catholic Rourkes on this census; they were usually recorded as O'Rourke: 1) census page 57: Andrew Rourke, farmer, 70, and wife, Ann Hogan, 34, with seven Canadian children, ages 2 - 11. 2) census page 63: Catharine Rourke wife of John Johnson, with 7 Canadian children (LAC Microfilm C1124). See UP TO RAWDON pages 1098 and 427.

<sup>2</sup> James was at Wallace Township, Perth County with wife Elisabeth and two daughters in 1861(identified as Rork with all family members born in Ireland.) Elisabeth died shortly thereafter. He purchased the farm of his brother Michael Samuel Rourke at Denbigh in Addington County, Ontario and remarried, Mary Williams (Ireland, est. 1846), at Christ Church, Rawdon on December 18, 1864. He may have been at Renfrew County, then after a brief stay at Park Head, Amabel Township, Bruce County and finally settled at Keppel and Derby in Grey County. He married three times. See: UP TO RAWDON To Huron's Shore chapter.

<sup>3</sup> Joseph Rourke settled about half way between Park Head and Allenford in Amabel Township, Bruce County with his wife Jane Manchester (born 1842, a daughter of Jacob Manchester and Elizabeth Smiley).

<sup>4</sup> Henry was born September 22, 1836 and baptized Henry Warren Rourke at Christ Church with siblings Mary Ann, Susan and Michael Samuel on March 23, 1847, a.k.a. as Henry Charles Rourke. He married Catherine Nightingale c.1862 who died in 1876. On 27 September 1884, he then married her sister Ellen at Allenford, Amabel Township, Bruce Co.

He died on June 4, 1909 at Park Head, Ontario and is buried at Hillcrest Cemetery, Tara in Arran Township, Bruce County. (Sheila Lamb lambsm@cogeco.ca)

<sup>8</sup> He married Ellen Mason (daughter of James Mason and Mary Armstrong) at Saint John the Evangelist Church, Montreal on 25 March 1862. There is no record of her death, 1867 -1870. James Rork, a widower, then married Esther Brennan at Chertsey on March 8, 1870 (Rivest Index). She was born at Rawdon on 7 February 1827, daughter of John Brennan and Ann Thomas. Esther died 4 March 1908 in Montreal but was buried in Rawdon.

Census at Chertsey identifies James (eldest son of Michael Rourke and Ann Davis). I have not found birth or death registrations for his family. His brother Michael lived at Chertsey in 1871 as did his second wife Esther's half sister, Susannah Smith Holtby.

1871: James Rork [sic], 40, born in Ireland married to Esther, 45, born in Quebec with children Anna 7, Georgiana 5 and James 4 - born in Quebec.

1881: James Roark [sic], 50, born in Ireland, was husband of Esther, 57, born in Ireland [sic]. Their children: Anna Maria 10 [sic], Georgiana 16, James Edward 14.

1901: James Rourk [sic] 70, born in Ireland, 13 February 1831, immigrated 1833. His wife, Essey, was 65 [sic] and born in Ireland [sic] but no dates recorded.

<sup>9</sup> Michael Rourke was born 14 June 1832 and baptized at Christ Church on 2 December 1832. Burial and other sources incorrectly indicate birth in 1830. He married Diana Blaggrave on July 26, 1865 in the presence of Robert Blaggrave and Mary Ann Blaggrave also at Christ Church. They lived at Chertsey in 1871,

<sup>12</sup> Elizabeth Rourke married Wm. Nightingale at Christ Church, Rawdon 5 March 1874 after death of her cousin, Mary Ann. Elizabeth died 22 April 1888 at New Glasgow, Quebec.

<sup>13</sup> She is only Jane in the church register but apparently known as Sarah Jane. She was born October "184 _" and baptized 29 July 1846, the same day as her brother John.

<sup>16</sup> Mary Neville died 22 October 1873; buried at Christ Church, Rawdon. Joseph Neville died 17 February 1873.

<sup>17</sup> On the 1911 census, he gave his birth date as May 1841.

<sup>18</sup> Tombstone: Christ Church Rawdon Cemetery - born 1827 and died 16 November 1911; married William Jones 12 February 1856, Christ Church.

<sup>19</sup> William Fulsher, son of Samuel Fulsher and Maria [sic Eliza] Neville was born June 22, 1846 and baptized at Christ Church, Rawdon on 16 December 1846.

<sup>20</sup> They married on April 24, 1843 at Christ Church (UP TO RAWDON, Fulsher at Rawdon, page 256). Their eldest son, William Fulsher, 4, was with his Neville grandparents in 1852, footnote 19.

<sup>21</sup> Michael Neville married Maria Lockins September 25, 1849 at Christ Church; in 1852, on farm at Chertsey. On adjoining farm: Richard Prettie 50 and wife Jane Neville 50 and William Prettie 32, George Prettie 24 and George Cox Prettie 22. Richard Prettie and Jane Neville on October 17, 1866 (of Cobourg, Haut-Canada) had a daughter Elizabeth, who renounced Anglican faith and was baptized at St. Patrick's Church, Rawdon before marriage to Thomas Daly (Hugh Daly / Mary Guinon), Bridget Neville a witness. Relationship of Jane to Jacob Neville not known.

Ages from 1861 census are sometimes doubtful; the 1852 census is more reliable. The two eldest sons, from 1852 census, John and James were not at home in 1861 and third son William may be with Neville family, see below.

<sup>22</sup> She married widower John George Gray, brother of her stepmother, Margaret Gray. They had two children baptized at Huntingdon in 1871. Maria died 24 July 1872 and John Gray remarried 1 October 1873 to Rose McCurdy, footnote 26 whose first husband was a cousin to Maria Rourke. See UP TO RAWDON English Gray, Lewis, Lockens for information John's first and third marriages.

<sup>23</sup> She lived with her grandmother after her mother died, March 29, 1857. As Marguerite [sic] Rourke she was 4 years old and with her grandmother and aunt, Isabella and Margaret Holmes on the 1861 Ste-Julienne Census. Margaret Roarke [sic] was recorded with her aunt, Margaret Holmes, Mrs. Saunders Smith at Ste-Julienne in 1871, also in her father's home.

<sup>24</sup> William's first child with Margaret Gray. The siblings of Eliza Jane Rourke are named on pages 298-299 of UP TO RAWDON, Part One and are taken from the 1871 and 1881 Rawdon Censuses.

<sup>25</sup> Usually spelled Saunders, he arrived in Canada c. 1839 (1901 census) and first lived with the Rourke family. He married Margaret Holmes, a younger sister of William's Rourke's wife Isabella Holmes, and had a family at Rawdon. Was he from Annagharvy and related to Henry Smith? See: Henry Smith of Annagharvy & Other Smiths at Rawdon.

Data on the Neville family is found on pages 1, 6 and 8 of this document. Pierre Emond of Lac des Deux Montagnes, Quebec kindly provided the scan.

<sup>26</sup> Rose is a daughter of Alexander McCurdy and Rose McFee and was born at Rawdon. She married a second time at Centenary Methodist Church in Pointe-St-Charles, Montreal on October 1, 1873. She was a widow, resident of Rawdon; the groom John Gray, was a carpenter of Huntingdon [twice a widower]. Rose was born 10 November 1827 and died 21 January 1876, presumably at Rawdon and was buried at Christ Church, Rawdon. Rose's children are on the 1881 Ste-Anne's Ward Census, on page 9 of this Appendix.

<sup>27</sup> Eliza Smiley could be Elizabeth Eveleigh, born 1806-1807, wife of John Smiley, 45 years, on 1852 census. She was a sister of Ann Eveleigh, Mrs. John Rourke and therefore would be an aunt to William Rourke, the household head. She should be in Howick, Huron County where her family settled.

<sup>28</sup> Daughter of William Jones and Jane Neville; born September 4 and baptized at Christ Church, November 7, 1856.

<sup>29</sup> John Rourke, son of the late Michael Rourke, farmer of Chertsey died in Little Chertsey 30 April 1913, aged 69 years and was buried in the cemetery of Christ Church, Rawdon on 2nd May. His wife, Ellen (maiden name was Sheppy or Chipping) died 16 May 1899 aged 40 years" and "was buried at the English Church graveyard". Their eldest children were James Rourk - died 22 April 1896, aged 19 years and Florence Anne Rourke who died of consumption in the Grace Dart Home, Montreal 3 October 1913, aged 31. Both are buried at Christ Church Cemetery. Other known children of John (Jack) Rourke and Ellen, his wife, are Robert 1887, Mary Ellen 1892 and John 1894; birth dates are estimated from 1891 and 1901 Chertsey censuses.

<sup>30</sup> Charles William Rorke [sic]- born March 19, 1856 and baptized at Christ Church, July 11, 1856, sponsors Henry Smith and Margaret Rollit.

<sup>31</sup> Born after 1852 census and not on the 1861. I have not found a burial for her at Christ Church. She was baptized on October 30, 1853 the daughter of Michael R. and Ann Davis; Abraham and Zerena Bagnall were sponsors.

1881 Census, Ste-Anne's Ward, Montreal: John Rourk [sic], a 25-year-old boiler maker was head of household and his sister Rosann, the eldest daughter of Rose and William, appears to have identified herself as married and used 48, her mother's age when she died; otherwise, this entry cannot be explained. The Rourk household also had five male boarders as well as John's siblings: Alec Rourk, 27 a policeman, his sisters Susan, 19 and Maggy, 17 and stepsister Bella Rourk, 12.

<sup>32</sup> Also enumerated were Michael's wife Emily, 26, born in Ontario and their children John 5, Samuel 3, William 2 and Emily 3 months, all were born in Quebec [sic]. See UP TO RAWDON, Part Two To Huron's Shore (page 1025).

<sup>33</sup> The Smiley boys living with John Rourke and Ann Eveleigh are her nephews, sons of John Smiley and Eliza Eveleigh, see the 1852 census. The Smiley family may have been in transition to a new home, at Howick Township, Huron County where an older brother Samuel Smiley was married in 1866.

The baptisms are from an Index to the Geashill and Killeigh parish registers., at St. Mary's Church of Ireland at Geashill, Tullamore, Co. Offaly Registers are in the Archives of the Representative Church Body Library, Braemor Park, Churchtown, Dublin 14. They do not have a copy of the Index and the archivist, Dr. Raymond Refaussé says it is not reliable. And so, there may be errors in the Rourke material noted below.

She married Charles Copping of Chertsey 4 March 1873 probably at Chertsey and lived at New Glasgow.

Sarah Rourke born 1848-1851
She is not in the Geashill Index but was 21 on the 1871 Chertsey census in 1871; she was 32 in 1881; she gave December 12, 1850 as her date of birth in 1901 and December 1847 in 1911.
She married her first cousin, Jacob Neville; she died at Rawdon, 26 June 1932 (Christ Church register).

<sup>34</sup> Rebecca Odlum was the second daughter of Thomas Odlum and Dinah Pattinson or Patterson and was born at Annaghary. She had an elder sister, Eliza, c. 1808 and a younger sister, Catherine c. 1813. Source: <http://www.odlumhistory.com/> pages 60 and 61.

<sup>36</sup> This must be her baptismal date. It is not in chronological order and perhaps it should read 1839. Tombstone dates her death at 76 years on 11 July 1915 (or born, 1839). Ena P. Rourke said she was born in 1838.

<sup>37</sup> Birth date in Geashill Index was typed 1845 and then 5 overtyped as 3. Thomas and Susan were baptized on the same day.

Michael Rourke

30 July 1850 and baptized 12 August 1850 (page 6G)

He apparently died before the family immigrated to Canada.

Eliza Rourke

2 January 1853 and baptized 25 September 1853 (page 25K)

Eliza used a younger age on later censuses. She married James Herbert, son of James Herbert (of King's County) and Alicia Watters, on 23 June 1874 at Christ Church. They had six children before his early death in 1890. Eliza died 20 September 1931 and was buried in Rawdon United Church Cemetery.

James Rourke

21 November 1855 and baptized 13 December 1855

He remained single and lived at Ste-Sophie with his sister Katherine in 1911. He died 27 December and was buried at Christ Church on 29 December 1927.
